NARRATIVE:

On the evening of December 17th, Burlington Police received a report of a larceny from a person that had occurred at the TD Bank ATM on Church Street in Burlington the night before. The male victim reported that while accessing the ATM, a male speaking with an accent had come into the ATM behind him, stated that he had a weapon, and taken the victim's withdrawal from the ATM before leaving the area on foot. Investigators subsequently obtained video from TD Bank which captured the event.

No weapon was displayed and no injuries were sustained by either party. The suspect left the area on foot following the incident. The suspect was described as a White/Hispanic male, 20-30 years of age, medium height, thin build, no facial hair, black winter cap with red trim, black jacket with white logos, dark pants and footwear. The images from TD Bank are being released for the purposes of identifying the suspect. Anyone who recognizes this individual is encouraged to contact Burlington Police or Crime Stoppers.
